

ASIEN 28 (Juli 1988)

Abstract

Cambodia 1988

Michael Vickery

All of ASEAN and many other countries think that the Phnom Penh government does not represent a real Khmer state, but is an artificially created puppet of Vietnam, set up after an illegal invasion and through which the latter rules and colonizes Cambodia. The article inquires how accurate this assessment is. State structure, politics and economy of this country are also discussed and analysed.