

Authors' Certification

In submitting the manuscript to ASIEN – The German Journal on Contemporary Asia, the authors certify that:

1. They are authorised by their co-authors to enter into these arrangements.
2. The submitted manuscript is original and has not been published before (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture, review, thesis or working paper), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication has been approved by all the authors and that the authors have full authority to enter into this agreement.
3. They have secured the right to reproduce any material that has already been published or copyrighted elsewhere.
4. Their manuscript contains nothing that is unlawful, libellous, or which would, if published, constitute a breach of contract or of confidence or of commitment given to secrecy.
5. They certify that they have secured the informed consent of all informants to publish, quote and/or refer to the informants themselves and the information the informants directly or indirectly provided to the authors. The authors hence further declare that no information disclosed within their manuscript constitutes a breach of the informants' personal rights.

Copyright Agreement

Authors who publish with this journal agree to the following terms:

1. Authors retain copyright and grant the journal right of first publication in print and online. The work is distributed under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International \(CC BY-NC-ND 4.0\) Licence, which allows others to share the work with an acknowledgement of the work's authorship and initial publication in this journal, commercial use excluded. However, the work may not be altered or transformed. The license is valid for both electronic and paper copies.
2. After an embargo period of one year after first publication, authors are free to enter into separate, additional contractual arrangements for the non-exclusive distribution of the journal's published version of the work, with an acknowledgement of its initial publication in this journal.
3. Authors grant the publisher of ASIEN, the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Asienkunde e. V. (DGA) commercial and non-commercial rights to produce hardcopy volumes of the journal for sale to libraries and individuals, as well as to integrate the work, its title, and its abstract in databases, online repositories, abstracting and indexing services, and other similar information sources, and to transfer these rights to third parties.
4. The authors consent to the storage and processing of their personal data by the DGA and its affiliates, insofar as this is necessary for the publication of their work. They expressly agree to the publication of their email address in the context of their work.
5. Court of jurisdiction is Hamburg, Germany.
